JOB PURPOSE:

To support the learning and development of children and to complement the work of the classroom teacher thereby making a strong contribution to childrens' learning and achievement. This may be achieved by providing a cover service to absent teachers, supervising classes/groups of children and ensuring that they carry out the agreed learning activities and tasks set by the teacher with designated responsibility.

SPECIFIC RESPONSIBILITIES:

Support for the children:

A. Planning & Expectations

- Effectively contributing to teachers' planning and preparation of lessons.
- Ensuring lessons are planned and taught (within the framework of the teacher and phase).
- Ensuring pupils and colleagues receive feedback on pupil's learning and behaviour.
- Selecting and preparing teaching resources that effectively meet the diversity of pupils' needs and interests.
- Effectively contributing to the planning of opportunities for pupils to learn in out-of-school contexts, in accordance with Academy policies and procedures.
- Act on behalf of the teacher in ensuring the safeguarding of the children in the classroom, keeping the learning environment secure and endeavour to leave the classrooms as found.

B. Monitoring and Assessment

- Supporting teachers in evaluating pupils' progress through a range of assessment activities.
- Monitoring pupils' responses to learning to assist in preparing and modifying future approaches to learning
- Monitoring pupils' participation and progress, and giving constructive support to children as they learn, as well as providing feedback to teachers.
- Contributing to maintaining and analysing pupils' progress.

C. Teaching and Learning Activities

- Ensuring that consistency in routine and expectations are maintained in order to minimise the effect of the teacher's absence upon the pupils learning.
- Show initiative and keep up to date with CPD and training.
- Using clearly structured teaching and learning activities which interest and motivate pupils and advance their learning.
- Follow the OCL curriculum including use of IT to support learning.
- Supporting pupils learning with effective and sensitive communication.

- Promoting and supporting the inclusion of all pupils in learning activities to ensure equal and fair learning opportunities.
- Using behaviour management strategies that are in line with the Academy's policy and procedures, which contribute to a purposeful and happy learning environment.
- Advancing pupils' learning in a range of classroom settings, including working with individuals, small groups and whole classes where the assigned teacher is not present.
- Guiding the work of other adults supporting teaching and learning (where relevant).
- Challenging stereotypical views, bullying or harassment by following the Academies policies and procedures.
- To take an active role in the Academy's pastoral care of pupils.

D. Safeguarding children and young people

Oasis Community Learning is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people. We expect all staff to share this commitment and to undergo appropriate checks, including an enhanced DBS check.

The above responsibilities are subject to the general duties and responsibilities contained in the Statement of Conditions of Employment.

The duties of this post may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the post or level of responsibility entailed.

Arrangements for appraisal of performance:

Participate in the school induction process and, thereafter, the annual performance review.

Notes:

The school expects all staff to be flexible. This means that a High Level Teaching Assistant can be expected to carry out duties that are not specified in this job description but that are within the scope of the responsibilities of the post.

This job description will be reviewed after one year and any review will include discussion with the postholder.

The person undertaking this role is expected to work within the policies, ethos and aims of the Academy and to carry out such other duties as may reasonably be assigned by the Principal. The post holder will be expected to have an agreed flexible working pattern to ensure that all relevant functions, including extra-curricular activities, are fulfilled through direct dialogue with employees, contractors and community members.

All staff take an active role in the Academy's care and guidance of students.

The above responsibilities are subject to the general duties and responsibilities contained in the Statement of Conditions of Employment.

The duties of this post may vary from time to time without changing the general character of the post or level of responsibility entailed.
